Sign up eNews

for MAC's

Between the bimonthly issues of the State of the Arts, our staff publishes four separate e-newsletters with opportuni-

Artists' email

newsletter

letter

ties and information:

Arts Educators'

Arts Organizations' email news-

• Public Artists'

information that has deadlines that are too short to make the State of the Arts.

If you'd like to sign-up for one or more us your contact information and what you'd like to receive resources/resources

_soasubscribe.asp or send us an email at:

at: art.mt.gov/

mac@mt.gov.

of these, please offer

Our eNews contain

email newsletter

email newsletter

Arlynn Fishbaugh, Executive Director afishbaugh@mt.gov

Legislative season begins again

January means the Legislature begins once again. I've assembled some talking points here we'll be using this year. I suggest you tear out this page and keep it handy for the next four months. To find out who your legislators are and how to contact them, visit www.leg.mt.gov/css/default.asp and then click "Legislators."

You will also find the "Passage of a Bill" – the handy infographic on how laws are made – included on page 8.

Major legislation pending that would impact the arts this session comes in the form of a bed-tax bill. The tourism industry in the state is developing a bill that would reallocate a portion of the bed tax currently going to the state general fund. This reallocation would be directed to tourism partners in the state, such as the arts council, the Montana Historical Society, the Heritage Commission, historic properties, State Parks, as well as the state's Promotion Division and the six tourism regions of the state.

The bill is still in draft form, so at press time there's no bill number for readers to track yet. We'll keep monitoring everything throughout the session since anything can happen.

STATE OF THE ARTS

State of the Arts is published six times a year by the Montana Arts Council and produced by Lively Times. State of the Arts welcomes submissions of photographs, press releases and newsworthy information from individual artists and arts organizations.

Please check with the Montana Arts Council for reprint permission.

Deadline: The deadline for submissions is January 23, 2015, for the March/April 2015 issue. Send items to: Montana Arts Council, PO Box 202201, Helena, MT 59620-2201; phone 406-444-6430, fax 406-444-6548 or email mac@mt.gov.

Subscriptions: State of the Arts is available free of charge to Montana residents as a public service of the Montana Arts Council. To subscribe, call 406-444-6430, or update or sign-up online at www.art.mt.gov. Out-of-state subscriptions are $15 per year; mail your check to Montana Arts Council, PO Box 202201, Helena, MT 59620.

Montana Arts Council Advocacy Fact Sheet

Mission Statement

The Montana Arts Council, an agency of state government, develops the creative potential of all Montanans, advances education, spurs economic vibrancy and revitalizes communities through involvement in the arts.

Vision Statement

Montana is known far and wide as "The Land of Creativity," where the arts are essential to the creativity, imagination and entrepreneurship that make Big Sky Country the very best place on Earth to live, learn, work and play.

The Montana Arts Council is administratively attached to the Board of Education, and has a staff of seven FTE.

Major Grant Programs

Arts Education: Artists in the Schools and Communities and Arts Education Partnerships

Arts Organizations: Public Value Partnerships Operating Support

Cultural Trust Grants: Funded through HB9 (administered by the arts council on behalf of the legislature)

Strategic Investment Grants: Funds for training, market expansion, public outreach, and emergencies for artists and organizations

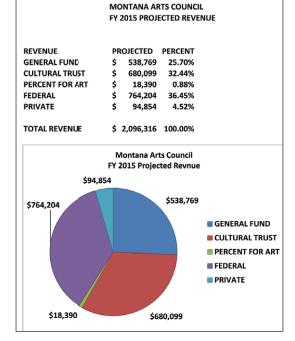

Major Service Programs

- State of the Arts bi-monthly newspaper and bi-weekly eNews bulletins
- Montana Artrepreneur Program: Artist marketing and business skill development
- Montana Circle of American Masters in Traditional and Folk Arts (honorary award)
- Governor's Arts Award (honorary award)
- Percent-for-Art Program: Art in state buildings

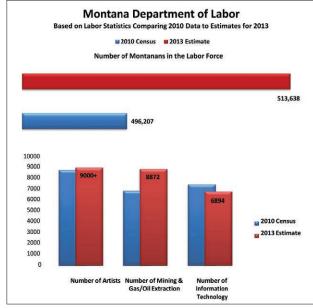

• The Art of Leadership: training for arts organization leaders

Arts mean business

Arts businesses contribute to the local economy through salaries, taxes (payroll, sales and property), contracted services and facility maintenance. In addition, the arts create vibrant communities that attract new businesses and individuals to the area.

- Montana arts organizations and individual artists have an economic impact of $1/4 billion annually
- Montana's nonprofit arts organizations produce $4 million in state taxes yearly
- Businesses cite the arts as very important to employee recruitment and retention

Arts mean tourism

A thriving arts scene draws cultural tourists who stay longer and spend more money at hotels and restaurants than other tourists (2010 U.S. Travel Industry report):

- Compared to all U.S. travelers, cultural tourists are more likely to:
 - Spend more ($994 vs. $611)
 - Stay longer (1.71 nights vs. 1.57 nights)
 - Travel more frequently in prior 12 months (5.01 trips vs. 3.98 trips)

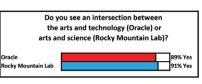

Arts mean educational achievement

Arts education engages students and helps them work collaboratively, think flexibly and solve problems.

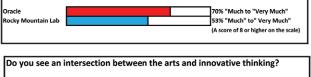

- Exposure to and education in the arts develops 21st-Century Skills (creativity, collaboration, communication and critical thinking) necessary to succeed in today's economy
- There is a distinct relationship between the arts and academic and social outcomes, including:
 - Visual arts instruction and reading readiness
 - Dramatic enactment and conflict resolution skills
 - Learning piano and mathematics proficiency
- Business leaders continue to cite innovation and creativity among the top workplace skills needed. The arts help build these skills.

Interesting Facts

One of the key points the arts council wants to illustrate is the close connection between the arts and creativity and the arts and innovation. In 2013 we surveyed employees at Rocky Mountain Laboratories in Hamilton and Oracle in Bozeman to seek their opinions on the subject. Here are highlights of that research:

On a scale of one (lowest) to ten (highest), how important are the arts and the

